

WE ARE EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE A WORKSHOP ON

THE STATE AND INDIGENOUS GOVERNANCE IN SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA AND NORTH AMERICA

The workshop will bring together Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars from sub-Saharan Africa and North America to explore common governance challenges and successes in the realization of Indigenous rights in these two diverse regions. Discussions will focus on exploring Indigenous governance broadly as it relates to state sovereignty, natural resource governance, peacebuilding, health, and the environment, among others.
